(AND OTHERS') AS A

FINANCIAL PLANNER

WHY SHOULD YOU PURSUE A FINANCIAL PLANNING CAREER?

Life's biggest milestones involve money. Financial planners help others plan to start a family, pay for college and retire. By the time you graduate, you'll get the expertise you need to obtain state and federal licenses and several industry certifications including the Certified Financial Planner® designation.

A Rapidly Growing Field:

Now is a prime time for college students to pursue a career in financial planning. The demographic shifts and industry changes created a growing demand for ethical financial advice from, and for, the next generation.

Get one step closer to financial freedom by doing what you love.
